doctor being taken sick himself, the patient recovered, and we are accordingly cheated out of both." An Irishman, who had lain sick a long time, was met one day by the parish priest, when the following conversation took place: "Well, Patrick, I an. glad have recovered-but were you not your riverence, it was the other chap I was afraid uv," replied Pat. There is a vast amount of grit in the "wimmen folk" when they undertake anything. An amusing incident was witnessed at the Depot of the Great Western Railway, a day or two since. An old lady was running after, and making vigorous efforts to catch the express train, which was fully a quarter of a mile ahead of her. A schoolboy of about six years of age, approached the master with a bold look and self-confident air, and the following dialogue ensued:

"May I be dismissed, sir?" "What reason have you for making the request, Thomas?"

'I want to take my woman out a sleighing, sir."

A certain lawyer had his portrait taken in his favorite attitude-standing with his hands in his pocket. His friends and clients all went to see it, and everybody exclaimed:

"O, how like? it's the picture of him." An old farmer only dissented.

"Taint like?" exclaimed everybody. "just show us wherein 'taint like?" "Taint-no 'taint," responded the farmer "don't you see his hands in his own pocket? 'Twould be as like again if he had it in comebody else's."

Public Speaking .- A writer in the New Orleans "Christian Advocate" says: "The most effective man, for his talents' that I know in the country, is the most simple, natural speaker. He stands calmly sirable stocks of before the audience-leans over the desk toward them -and speaks with the tones and manner in which he would address an infant class in a Sunhay-school. Everyboly listens, is pleased-and weeps. I so wrought upon that they could bardly contain themselves."

THERE'S YOUR Pro!- "Patrick, the widow Molony tells me you have stolen one of her finest pigs. Is that so!" "Yes, yer honor!

"What have you done with it?" "Killed it and ate it, yer honor?"

"Oh, Patrick, when you are brought face to face with the widow and her pig on the Judgement day, what account will you be able to give of yourself, when the widow accuses you of theft?" "Did you say the pig would be there,

"Well, then I'll say, Mrs. Molony, there's your pig!"
